Copyright Transfer Agreement

The undersigned hereby agree(s) to transfer the following Economic Rights to the Work to the Japan Society of Applied Physics (hereinafter referred to as "JSAP"), effective if and when the manuscript is accepted for publication by JJAP Editorial Board.

Economic Rights: any and all rights including, but not limited to, right of reproduction (Article 21 of the Copyright Law of Japan (hereinafter referred to as the "Law")), right of performance (Article 22 of the Law), right of presentation (Article 22-2 of the Law), right of public transmission (Article 23 of the Law), right of recitation (Article 24 of the Law), right of exhibition (Article 25 of the Law), right of distribution (Article 26 of the Law), right of transfer of ownership (Article 26-2 of the Law), right of lending (Article 26-3 of the Law), right of translation and adaptation (Article 27 of the Law), and the right of the original Author regarding the exploitation of derivative works (Article 28 of the Law).

The Author(s) shall not exercise Moral Rights with respect to the Society. Moral Rights refer to the right to make the works public (Article 18 of the Law), right to determine the indication of the Author's name (Article 19 of the Law), right to preserve the integrity of the work (Article 20 of the Law).

The Author(s) retain(s) the following rights (the "Rights of Authors "):

Rights of Author(s)

- (1) The right to use a part of the Work in future works and derivatives prepared by or on behalf of the Author(s).
  - (2) The right to make copies of all or part of the Work without further permission, for the purpose of his personal use but not for resale.
- Author(s) shall not use any Economic Rights other than listed above without prior written consent of JSAP.
Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Author may use, translate, or adapt the manuscript without prior written consent of JSAP, to the extent that such use falls within the limitations (i.e., Articles 30 through 50 of the Law), except in the cases listed below:
- (A) Commercial purposes;
  - (B) Duplicated or redundant contributions to other journals of an academic society or academic journals or communications, whatsoever, domestic or overseas; or
  - (C) Any other purpose deemed extravagant in light of fair academic practices.
- (3) Exception.— The submitted manuscript has been authored by a contractor of the U.S. Government under Contract No. _____.
Accordingly, the U.S. Government retains a nonexclusive royalty-free license to publish or reproduce the published form of this contribution, or allows others to do so, for U.S. Government purposes. Note that the rights the U.S. Government retains are not for commercial purposes.

For further information about The Copyright Policy of JSAP, see <http://www.jsap.or.jp/english/copyright.html>

Who should sign

By signing this agreement, the Author(s) represent and warrant that the Work is original with the Author(s) and does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties, and that the Work has not been published elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein. If each Author's signature does not appear below, the signing Author(s) represent that they sign this agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all the Authors, and that this agreement and authorization is made on behalf of all the Authors. The signing Author(s) also represent and warrant that they have the full power to enter into this agreement and to make the grants contained herein.

In the event the Work is not accepted and published by JSAP or is withdrawn by the Author(s) before acceptance by JSAP, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to JSAP will be destroyed. Neither the Author(s) nor JSAP shall be any liability or obligation.
